

NONTRAUMATIC MUSCULOSKELETAL

---

Presentations may involve bones, joints, muscles, and connective tissues. These presentations may include, but are not limited to pain, swelling, numbness, rash, and infections.

Examples of specific conditions may include low back pain, toxic synovitis, slipped capital femoral epiphysis, septic arthritis, hemarthrosis (hemophilia), compartment syndrome, carpal tunnel syndrome, and rheumatoid arthritis.

Pediatric Limp

- Abnormal vital signs
  - Child
  - Foreign body
  - Obesity
  - Pain
  - Post-traumatic
  - Rash
  - Swelling
-

Back Pain

- Abnormal vital signs
  - Child
  - Dysuria
  - Hematuria
  - Older adult
  - Paralysis
  - Paresthesia
  - Post-traumatic
  - Rash
  - Substance use disorder
  - Urinary symptoms
  - Weak
-

Rash

- Abnormal vital signs
- Altered consciousness
- Child
- Environmental exposure
- Itching
- Older adult
- Pain

Extremity / Joint Pain or Swelling

- Abnormal vital signs
- Abscess
- Altered consciousness
- Child
- Discharge
- Mass
- Older adult
- Paresthesia
- Post-traumatic
- Rash
- Swelling

September 2, 2020